WE PROVIDE:

- One-on-one support for job coaching, volunteer opportunities and more
- Assistance in building self-determination and self-esteem and life skills
- Person-centered, individualized plans

Goodwill Hawaii's Long-Term Adult Supports and Resources (LASR) program provides adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities a continuum of services to attain employment goals and build independent living skills.

The program is designed to enhance the individual's experience in the community by expanding their natural support network, building knowledge of their community and creating opportunities to contribute to their community. LASR provides individuals with the tools to gain greater independence in the community.
